THE TOWN MAYOR'S REPORT FOR 2022/23:

The Mayor's annual report was tabled, copy attached.

A question was raised regarding the skate park to which the Mayor replied that we were looking for an alternative venue.

QUESTIONS/COMMENTS/AOB:

Would the pedestrianisation of Great Whyte result in loss of parking spaces – alternative parking was being looked at and it was felt that overall it would have no impact.

A bid had been made to include the whole Town in a 20mph limit.

Contractors had been engaged to repair the cemetery wall and water leak.

Several rubbish bins had been removed by the District Council during covid and not replaced.

It was asked why the increase in Council Tax had risen by 17% - The Mayor responded by saying that generally prices were expected to rise significantly on last year. Also as there has been no increase in the precept for several years we were playing catch up.

There being no other business the meeting closed at 6.20 pm.
